HELP US SAVE THE TRAILS

- Be kind to your fellow trail users and have fun!
- Participate in a trail work day. See pricklypearlt.org.

ALL TRAIL USERS

- All trails on this map are for non-motorized use only.
- Stay on designated and marked trails.
- Do not climb or cut natural hills.
- Be courteous to other users.
- Keep your dogs under control.
- Do not ride trails when they are soggy.
- Keep roads clean of leaves and trash.
- Do not feed wildlife.
- Always yield, especially to uphill users.
- When it’s hot, leave dogs at home or take water for them.
- Avoid riding in hot weather or with heat warning, such as a high 0.20
- Dog owners
  - Keep dogs under control.
  - Do not feed wildlife.
  - Do not ride trails when they are soggy.
  - Keep roads clean of leaves and trash.
  - Do not feed wildlife.
  - Always yield, especially to uphill users.
  - When it’s hot, leave dogs at home or take water for them.
  - Avoid riding in hot weather or with heat warning, such as a high 0.20
- Mountain bikers
  - Ride under control.
  - Do not feed wildlife.
  - Do not ride trails when they are soggy.
  - Keep roads clean of leaves and trash.
  - Do not feed wildlife.
  - Always yield, especially to uphill users.
  - When it’s hot, leave dogs at home or take water for them.
  - Avoid riding in hot weather or with heat warning, such as a high 0.20
- Horse users
  - Horses are allowed on National Forest lands only.
  - Do not feed wildlife.
  - Do not ride trails when they are soggy.
  - Keep roads clean of leaves and trash.
  - Do not feed wildlife.
  - Always yield, especially to uphill users.
  - When it’s hot, leave dogs at home or take water for them.
  - Avoid riding in hot weather or with heat warning, such as a high 0.20

HELP US SAVE THE TRAILS

- Prickly Pear Land Trust and its members work hard to maintain our trail system. Here are a few ways you can help us keep this trail system clean:
  - Participate in a trail work day. See pricklypearlt.org.
  - Be kind to your fellow trail users and have fun!
  - Participate in a trail work day. See pricklypearlt.org.

- Don’t ride on fresh or un-rutted trails.
- Don’t cut or vandalize trail signs, markers, or other trail features.
- Don’t feed wildlife or create new trails.
- Don’t litter or leave trash on the trail.
- Help prevent trail damage by thoroughly rinsing your vehicle with soap and water before parking it near a trailhead.
- Help prevent trail damage by thoroughly rinsing your vehicle with soap and water before parking it near a trailhead.
- Help prevent trail damage by thoroughly rinsing your vehicle with soap and water before parking it near a trailhead.

SOUTH HILLS TRAIL SYSTEM • HELENA, MONTANA

FEATURES

- Trailhead with Parking
- Trailhead
- Bike Skills Area
- Trail Intersection
- Trailhead Kiosk
- Asphault Trail
- Bitumen Trail
- Proposed Trail
- Low Traffic Road
- Bike Route or Lane
- Proposed Bike Route or Lane
- Main Road
- Interstate 15
- Continental Divide
- British Civi War Trail
- Montana-Idaho Trail

LAND OWNERSHIP

- Prickly Pear Land Trust
- US Bureau of Land Management
- US Forest Service
- US Dept. of Defense
- State of Montana
- City of Helena
- Private Land
- Land Acquired by FFL and Transferred to Local Elected Agency

HELP US SAVE THE TRAILS

- Prickly Pear Land Trust and its members work hard to maintain our trail system. Here are a few ways you can help us keep this trail system clean:
  - Participate in a trail work day. See pricklypearlt.org.
  - Be kind to your fellow trail users and have fun!
  - Participate in a trail work day. See pricklypearlt.org.

- Don’t ride on fresh or un-rutted trails.
- Don’t cut or vandalize trail signs, markers, or other trail features.
- Don’t feed wildlife or create new trails.
- Don’t litter or leave trash on the trail.
- Help prevent trail damage by thoroughly rinsing your vehicle with soap and water before parking it near a trailhead.
- Help prevent trail damage by thoroughly rinsing your vehicle with soap and water before parking it near a trailhead.
- Help prevent trail damage by thoroughly rinsing your vehicle with soap and water before parking it near a trailhead.

- Help us save the trails by participating in trail work days. See pricklypearlt.org.
- Be kind to your fellow trail users and have fun!